NENCKI Microscopy Workshop, 28 – 31 May 2014, Nencki Institute of Experimental Biology, Warsaw, Poland

Date posted: April 1st 2014

We are happy to announce a Microscopy Workshop, which will be held on May 28th - 31st, 2014 at the Nencki Institute of Experimental Biology, Warsaw, Poland. It will start evening of Wednesday, May 28th and end on Saturday afternoon, May 31st.

VENUE: NENCKI INSTITUTE

SPEAKERS:

from EMBL, Heidelberg:

- Edward Lemke
- Yannick Schwab
- Jonas Ries

from Hannover Medical School:

- Evgeni Ponimaskin
- Andre Zeug

from Leibniz Institute of Neurobiology, Magdeburg

- Werner Zuschratter

from Max Planck Institute, Göttingen

- Andrew Woehler

from Nicolaus Copernicus University

- Ireneusz Grulkowski

JUNIOR SPEAKERS: Invites based on submitted abstracts

A POSTER SESSION: Posters are not obligatory, however travel and accommodation grants will be awarded for the best abstracts
PRACTICALS:

Advanced microscopy methods, including FLIM/FRET, FCS, live imaging, 3VIEW as well as tissue preparation techniques Clarity and high-pressure freezing freeze-substitution will be presented on May 30th and May 31st. The number of attendees is limited.

PROGRAM

A detailed program, as well as instructions for poster preparation, will be available at a date closer to the meeting.

REGISTRATION PROCEDURE

There is no registration fee. Nonetheless, due to organizational reasons, registration is obligatory. Registration closes on May 24th, 2014. The number of Participants, as well as the number of travel and accommodation grants is limited. A registration form is attached (Word document). It should be sent to g.wilczynski@nencki.gov.pl

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

Grzegorz Wilczynski, Jakub Wlodarczyk, Tytus Bernas, Izabela Figiel, Marta Pyskaty, Justyna Czaban

CONTACT

g.wilczynski@nencki.gov.pl